DISTRICT BULLETIN

Issue 16, November 2026

Founders Day
November 16, 1929

"Filled with the ardent desire to create this great women's organization . . . Mrs. Apostolides envisioned a new beginning for first generation Greek-American women. . . " "The loyal and faithful wife of Odysseus personified all that Mrs. Apostolides sought in her creation. . . Penelope's noble traits of character and her loyalty to her family and home were the symbols and embodiment for the birth of the name: Daughters of Penelope." "Did we attain their goals? Did we fulfill their dreams and aspirations?" Excerpts from "The History of the Order of AHEPA, Chapter Fourteen: The Daughters of Penelope by PGP Evelyn J. Mickles

I think we have. What do you think?
